

FROM HAMPSTEAD TO NORWICH: RITUAL VIOLENCE OR COACHING?

Summary

The 'Memory Wars' of the 1990's are reignited in the UK by cases of alleged ritual abuse and human sacrifice murder that resemble accounts found in books by Sara Scott (UK) and De Camp (US). In Family Courts protective parents are frequently accused of 'Coaching' children to make sexual abuse allegations. However foster carers (who get £20k tax-free per child per year) are seemingly exempted from such accusations. This poster outlines several high profile cases.

Background

In February 2017 a headline screamed 'Group of women who say they were abused by Sir Edward Heath also claim their parents ran a satanic sex cult that was involved in SIXTEEN child murders' – a claim found credible by the police chief of Wiltshire:

<http://www.dailymail.co.uk/news/article-4240690/Sir-Edward-Heath-accusers-claim-parents-ran-sex-cult.html>

<http://www.telegraph.co.uk/news/2017/02/19/claims-sir-edward-heath-paedophile-120-per-cent-genuine-police/>

The claims were reportedly dismissed when they first surfaced in 1989. Since then a society-wide 'Discourse of Disbelief' has been drip fed that ritual abuse does not exist. However a document, analysed by Kurz (2016), appeared on the web detailing activities of a group that appears to be a high-society Paedophile ring that also engages in ritual torture and murder:

Numerous politicians, aristocrats, journalists and health professionals are named including a Psychiatrist who seemingly specialises in covering up sadistic abuse and framing innocent parents: ...is known to our informants because he is prepared to help groups nationwide... His conclusion was that I had invented the entire story and suggested it all to her, causing her to believe all the elaborate detail she had given us. This finished the police investigation on that case. He later caused considerable damage to a family in LASA, which resulted in both the children being taken away from the entirely innocent mother. Both returned to her voluntarily as soon as they were old enough. He was also involved in the Broxtowe Case 1987, before it was known to be SRA rather than only CSA.

The subject matter is very tricky to investigate with many so called 'Experts' denying outright the existence of the phenomenon, some believing absolutely everything and just a few cautiously and judiciously looking at matters on a case-by-case basis. Matters get even more complex when children rather than mature ladies make disclosures of ritual violence. This poster compares recent cases in Hampstead (North London) and Norwich.

Hampstead or Hoaxstead?

In September 2014 a 9 year old boy and his 8 year old sister made disconcerting disclosures to their mother and her boyfriend concerning extreme abuse and murder of babies ('Ritual Sacrifice?'). Video recordings appeared on the Internet in February 2015 that were reportedly viewed by 4 Million individuals across the world. The astonishing disclosures implicated family members, friends and members of institutions. Ricky Dearman, the man at the centre of the allegations, denied all wrongdoing and was afforded an interview on the BBC Victoria Derbyshire program (which did not mention his acting career). Several websites sprung up:

Norwich Child Smuggling

A few years earlier a chilling custody battle received a lot of media attention when Norwich Social Workers took baby Luna from their British parents who habitually resided in France:

A High Court ruled that Norwich County Council must return the baby. Joe Ollis and Marie Black (formerly known as Marie Adams) were interviewed about the ordeal by Sue Reid:

<http://www.dailymail.co.uk/femail/article-2182245/Social-workers-followed-France-snatch-baby.html> 1 August 2012

Marie's five children had been 'taken into care' due to concerns about domestic violence in previous relationships (e.g. her ex-husband spent a year in jail due to admitting assault). It turns out that Marie had been coerced into a 'Voluntary Section 20' arrangement of 'temporary foster care' while sorting out accommodation. However when a 4 bedroom house was ready the authorities repeatedly refused to return the children appealing immediately against Court Orders to return them. Joe and Marie were teenage sweethearts for 4 years leading to the birth of their first child. A Social Worker informed Joe and Marie's oldest child that paternity was confirmed but shortly afterwards claimed following DNA testing that the father was 'unknown'. Without any medical proof authorities claimed that Joe was a violent person who once broke Marie's arm yet refused to release Marie's NHS medical records.

Abuse Allegations

One child experienced early trauma (shattered glass door at 3 months & facial injury at 2 years) and 'Urinary Tract Infection' from the age of 3 necessitating many medical examination. From the age of 4 the child was known 'to make things up'. While in 'temporary foster care' the child claimed that Marie wanted to take back only this child and one other. The foster carers were fully aware that this was a lie. After 9 months Social Workers 'out-of-the-blue' produced pages of allegations of sexual abuse involving relatives, friends and members of institutions. Disgraced Psychiatrist Anthony Baker played a pivotal role:

<http://www.psychcrime.org/news/index.php?vd=1439&t=UK+psychiatrist+Anthony+Baker%27s+sordid+past+spurs+call+for+overhaul+of+child+protection+system>

One allegation was that Marie ostensibly put a baby that her friend had 'run over' into a bag, carried it into her house and made her children drink its blood! What is the credibility of these allegations when the friend did not own a car and did not have a driving licence either? No baby was reported missing and no dead baby was found. Without any physical evidence a criminal case ensued against 10 defendants most of whom were members of Marie's family while the remaining 30 'alleged abusers' were not even interviewed! In extremely dubious circumstances Marie and two former partners were found guilty of sexual abuse.

Conclusions

The cases surveyed suggest that a lot more investigation should be carried out that is commensurate with the seriousness of extreme abuse and ritual sacrifice murder. The 'Hampstead Kids' and 'Norwich Three' rulings both appear extremely unsafe:
